SURFACE LINE RECEIVERS FILE THEIR ANSWERS

Joline and Robinson Make Identical Reply to Trust Company Suits.

Federal Receivers Joline and Robinson filed answers today in the United States Circuit Court in the suits of the Guaranty and Morton Trust Companies against the Metropolitan Street Railway Company and others, and in the suit of the Pennsylvania Steel Company, and the Lagon Contracting Company, against the New York City Railway and the Metropolitan Street Railway Companies.

The answers are identical in their wording, and Article No. 22 of each were:

"These respondents deny that, as receivers of the New York City Railway Company, they received between Sept. 24, 1907, and June 29, 1908, through operating the property in their possession, a sum in excess of $12,220,000. These respondents admit that as receivers of Metropolitan Street Railway Company and as receiver of New York City Railway Company they borrowed during the said period the sum of $40,776, and that they used cash on hand at the inception of the receivership amounting to $607,291.23.

Admit Their Expenditures.

"These respondents do not know and cannot set forth as to their belief or otherwise whether the cross-complainants know what periods were obtained by these respondents as receivers of the New York City Railway Company. These respondents admit that while acting as receivers of the New York City Railway Company they expended in payrolls during said period the sum of $6,655,000.57, and that part of this sum was paid for services rendered within four months prior to Sept. 24, 1907.

"These respondents admit that while acting as receivers of New York City Railway Company they expended during said period the sum of $28,666.67 on account of water rates and taxes. These respondents admit that while acting as receivers of New York City Railway Company they expended during said period $257,331.30 for materials and supplies received by them. These respondents admit that while acting as receivers of New York City Railway Company they expended during said period $1,067,412.19 in payment of rent of lines operated under leases and agreements.

Fires Cost $551,951.

"These respondents admit that while acting as receivers of the New York City Railway Company they expended during said period $621,511.36 in replacement of property destroyed by fire in advance of the receipt of insurance. $101,477.50 for sprinkler equipment and the like; $115,092.50 for the completion of the First Avenue line to put the line in condition for electric operation; $20,439.02 for track work, including modernization of tracks for passenger-conductors' cars; $264,118.25 for miscellaneous construction work; $108,475 for horses purchased.

"These respondents further admit that while acting as receivers of New York City Railway Company they expended amounts aggregating $14,512.82 for expenditures incident to the operation of the property, and $263,741 on account of motive power, additional power, machinery, enlargement of sprinkler system, in buildings, new cars and the like.

"These respondents deny that the expenditures set out that said statements were not correctly made and charged, and they allege that they have in all respects acted in accordance with the instructions of the honorable Court. For greater certainty and precision as to the nature of the expenditures set forth in this article those respondents pray leave to refer to the statement filed in the office of the Clerk of the Court on Aug. 15, 1908.

The expenditures described by the receivers total $11,776,675.63.

FACES BIGAMY CHARGE.

Jacob Guthrie, thirty-five years old, of No. 135 Essex street, was in the Essex Market Court this morning on a summons procured by a woman who declared she was his wife, charging him with abandonment and non-support.

A charge of bigamy may be made against the defendant, as he told Magistrate Herman that his wife was in the Manhattan State Hospital for the Insane, and the complainant this morning presented a certificate which purported to be proof of her marriage to Guthrie. She also had several witnesses in court, two of whom said they witnessed her marriage to Guthrie.

The case was adjourned until next Monday, and Guthrie was paroled by the Magistrate. He said he has four children at his home in Essex street.

Evans Ale

DRAWN direct from the wood possesses delightful milkiness, luscious flavor, amber hue and creamy head that captivate all the senses—besides satisfying the inner man.

careers. Mr. Frohman will accept the twelve winners of this Beauty contest and give them free tuition in singing, dancing and acting. Next August, when he produces the new musical play, "The Dollar Princess" in this city, the dozen girls will have places in the chorus. They will be paid $5 a week each and will be given contracts for a year.

Beauty is what counts in the competition. A hundred of the prettiest girls, judged by their photographs, have been selected from the thousands of pictures sent to The Evening World and readers are asked to pick their favorites from these.

The newspaper reproduction of photographs may not convey all the attractive points of the subject—the complexion, color of hair, sweetness of expression, etc.—but they are the best that can be produced on fast presses and they are as fair for one as the other of the contestants.

Use the voting coupon on Page 2 when expressing your choice of the beauties.

SISTER SAYS RICH WOMAN IS UNABLE TO GUARD ESTATE

Court Names Committee in Case of Mrs. Maud Cooke Now in a Sanitarium.

Declaring that her sister, Mrs. Maud Elizabeth Cooke, of New York, was hopelessly confined in the habit of excessive drink and has a fortune of more than $500,000, Beatrice M. McCandish, of New Orleans, through Charles E. Hill, her attorney, applied to Justice Davis, in the Supreme Court, this afternoon for an order naming a committee to act in an inquiry as to Mrs. Cooke's mental capacity to care for herself and her property.

The petition recites that Mrs. Cooke is now an inmate of the Rivercrest Sanitarium at Astoria.

It is accompanied by an affidavit signed by William A. Cooke, husband of Maud Elizabeth Cooke. He says that they were married July 2, 1897, at New Orleans, that he had known her for three months, that he knew that during that time she had indulged to excess in strong drink but expressed herself as anxious to break away from such habits.

She did control herself for a short period after the marriage, but soon resumed the use of liquor. From then on she was almost continually intoxicated, according to the husband's affidavit, and was at times violent, striking him.

On Nov. 12 last, Mr. Cooke says, he left home, and when he returned Dec. 1, she had disappeared. His first information of her whereabouts came in a letter from Dr. J. Blake White, of New York, saying that Mrs. Cooke was in the Rivercrest Sanitarium.

Mr. Cooke hurried to New York. He saw his wife in the sanitarium. Dr. White and the other physicians there told him that although she had improved slightly, she still had delusions, and there was small hope of her ultimate recovery.

James Brisbane, of No. 55 Fifth avenue, made affidavit that he had known Mrs. Cooke for fifteen years, and that during the past five years she had been indulging to excess in intoxicating liquors.

On the strength of these affidavits the Justice named Dr. Robert A. Murray, Abraham L. Jacobs, lawyer, and S. A. Jennings, physician, to act as commissioners with a sheriff's jury in a lunatic inquiring.

GRAND JURY TAKES UP HANSEN'S CASE

Hears Testimony Against the Accused Lawyer and Will Call Him To-Morrow.

District Attorney Jerome took three witnesses before the Grand Jury today in the matter regarding the alleged bribery by Karl Fischer Hansen and his partner, Alexander Michaelson, of witnesses who testified in Hansen's favor when he was on trial charged with having extorted $15,000 from Joseph O'Brien, a Philadelphia contractor.

The witnesses were Arthur Klesow, a former subpoena server attached to the District Attorney's office, who has confessed that he was a messenger between Fischer Hansen and Tony Macaluso, who was concerned in the alleged extortion; Joseph V. Verona, a former employee of Fischer Hansen and Elizabeth Welbel, who has sworn that she carried messages and money between Michaelson and Macaluso.

George Gordon Battle, who asked several days ago that the Grand Jury would hear his clients' side of the story was notified that the Grand Jury would be pleased to hear them to-morrow.

55 MINE VICTIMS FOUND.

BLAKEFIELD, Va., Jan. 14.—A total of fifty bodies have thus far been taken from the wrecked mine at Lick branch. There have been no further identifications since last night, when the names were given out of twenty-four victims. All indications point to the fast recovery of the remaining bodies.
